Homelessness & Housing Insecurity in the Windham Region

TARGET AUDIENCE

Those who want to create better communities: town officials, social service providers, school leaders, charitable organizations, developers, builders, religious groups, & community members – like you.

DESCRIPTION

An introduction to housing insecurity in Eastern Connecticut & the feasibility of ending homelessness. Attendees will hear from innovators within the housing community on how to address housing insecurity with actionable tasks & from those who have experienced homelessness (from Faces of Homelessness) & what made a difference in their lives.

OUTCOMES

Steps we can take as an organized community to address housing insecurity & homelessness in each of our towns throughout the Windham region.
